A&O Berlin am Zoo

The name says it all! Our second hotel and hostel in Berlin, A&O Berlin am Zoo, is located in the heart of Berlin City-West - Ku'damm with the Memorial Church and KaDeWe on the one side, on the other side the railway station Zoologischer Garten with its eponym, the Berlin Zoo. An ideal starting point for extensive shopping tours (do not miss the gourmet storey in the KaDeWe) and trips to Charlottenburg Palace or the Tiergarten park; in A&O Berlin am Zoo you are right in the middle of things.

The international flair of this city is nowhere to be felt as intensively as in this hostel! In the evenings you find excellent bars and restaurants in the small side streets all around Savignyplatz. The Berlin Hard Rock Café and the Q'Dorf, an underground party-location famous far beyond the borders of Berlin, invite you to parties of their own league.

It is only a few minutes' ride with the S-Bahn transit to Berlin City-East, to Alexanderplatz, Museum Island and Brandenburg Gate, or you may choose Berlin's best-priced city tour: Berlin's public transportation services' bus 100 passes many of Berlin's famous sights on its way from Zoo to Alexanderplatz.

Should you prefer to spend your evening at the hostel, internet terminals, a pool table, 2 bars and a sauna are available. For teachers and group leaders there is the A&O Teachers' Lounge, a work and recreational room equipped with a PC, printer, free internet access and a telephone.

A&O Berlin am Zoo - here you are at the pulse of the city!
