

A&O München Hauptbahnhof, Bayerstr. 75, D-80335 München

A&O München Hauptbahnhof

Bavaria's state capital on the Isar attracts tourists from all over the world, for here you can experience original German customs at their most Bavarian: lederhosen and Weißwurst ("white sausage"), dirndls and pretzels, beer gardens and a huge "measure" of beer – that is the life at Munich's innumerable Hofbräuhaus.

Welcome to A&O München Hauptbahnhof in Bayerstraße in Munich! Situated only a few metres away from the main station and other public transport, our hotel with its central location is ideal for your visit; the perfect starting point from which to explore Munich and its many facets. Our single, double and family rooms classified as two-star by the DEHOGA, the German Association of Hotels and Guesthouses, are equipped with shower/WC, hairdryer and TV and most of them have balconies. Reception and the lobby bar are open around the clock, and our friendly, helpful staff will be happy to provide tips and tickets for your stay in Munich. Start the day with our extensive, well-balanced breakfast buffet, collect all the information you need about the city from reception, and then step out to enjoy our A&O City Hotel's central location – you can walk to the main station in only a few minutes, and from there it is easy to catch an underground train or tram.

And if you still need help and ideas planning your trip, why not take a look at the next page and create your own individual programme in Munich?

Double room

Single room

Overview Hotel in total 185 beds, 73 rooms

General services

